

X
Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

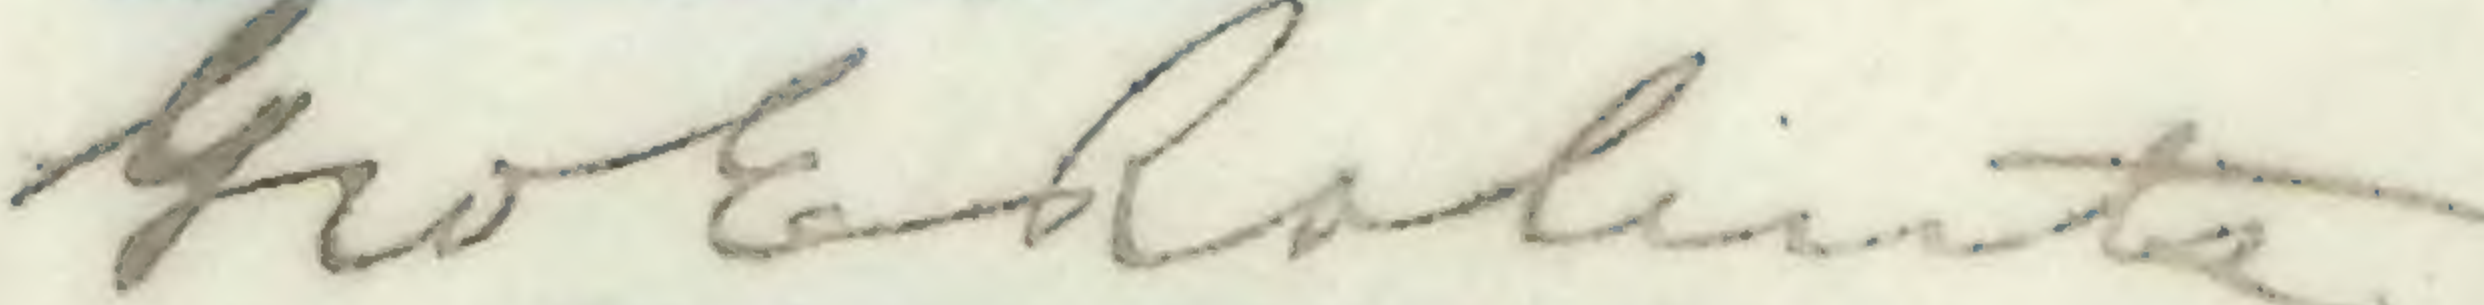

Washington, D. C.,

May 22, 1899.

A. R. Barrett,
No. 42 Coulter Street,
Germantown, Pa.

Mr. F. B. Earhart, Special U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana, states that the case of the United States vs. Andrew W. Smyth et al, at New Orleans is set for trial June 5th. He says that he has summonsed you as a witness. He requests that you be appointed a Special Agent of this Bureau to assist him at the trial. Owing to the limited amount of funds available for the payment of services of this character, you can only be appointed for a period of fifteen days, at a compensation of six dollars ($6.) per diem, and allowed your traveling expenses from Philadelphia to New Orleans and return. I would be very glad to have you go to New Orleans if you can do so, as the District Attorney is very anxious to have you present at the trial. Should you decide to accept this service, railway transportation will be sent you from Philadelphia to New Orleans and return. I will thank you to give me your decision on the matter as early as practicable.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.

May 22, 1899.

Mr. A. R. Barrett,
No. 42 Coulter Street,
Germantown, Pa.

Sir:

Mr. W. B. Barnhart, Special U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana, states that the case of the United States vs. Andrew W. Smyth et al., at New Orleans is set for trial June 5th, and he says that he has summoned you as a witness. He requests that you be appointed a Special Agent of this Bureau to assist him at the trial. Owing to the limited amount of funds available for the employment of services of this character, you can only be appointed for a period of fifteen days, at a compensation of six dollars ($6.00) per diem, and allowed your traveling expenses from Philadelphia to New Orleans and return. I would be very glad to have you go to New Orleans if you can do so, as the District Attorney is very anxious to have you present at the trial. Should you decide to accept this service, railway transportation will be sent you from Philadelphia to New Orleans and return. I will thank you to give me your decision on the matter as early as practicable.

Respectfully yours,
[Signature] George E. Roberts
Director of the Mint.

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., May 26, 1899

R. Barrett, Esq.,

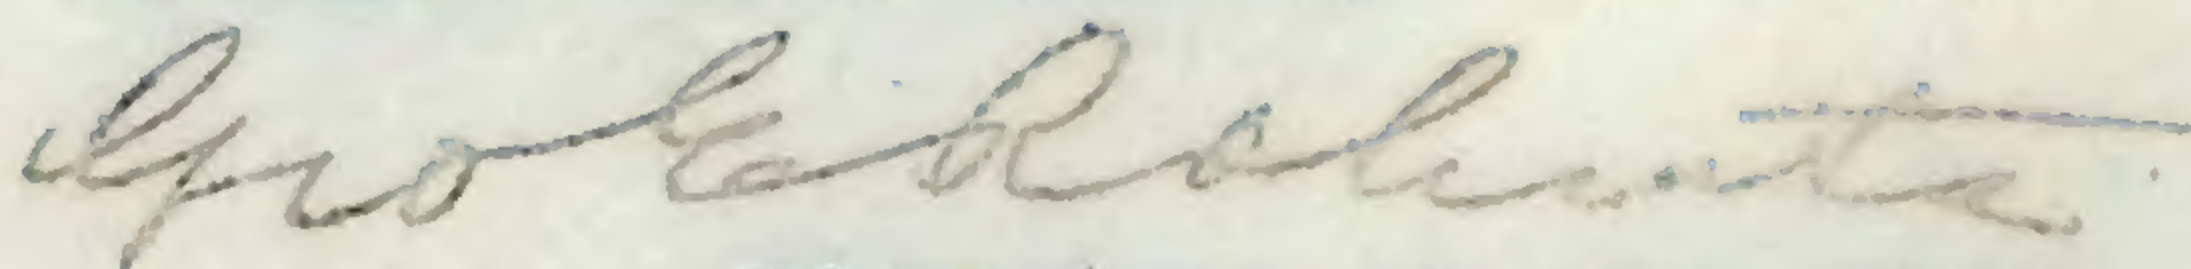

42 W. Coulter Street,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

You are respectfully informed that the communication of Mr. F.B. Earhart, special United States District Attorney requesting your employment as an expert in the case of the United States vs. Andrew B. Smyth, late Superintendent of the Mint at New Orleans, was forwarded by me to the Secretary of the Treasury with the recommendation that the Department of Justice be requested to employ you as desired by Mr. Earhart, as this Bureau has not a sufficient amount of money available to pay your compensation. Mr. Earhart has been notified of this action.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., May 31, 1899

R. Barrett, Esq.,

No. 42 Coulter Street,

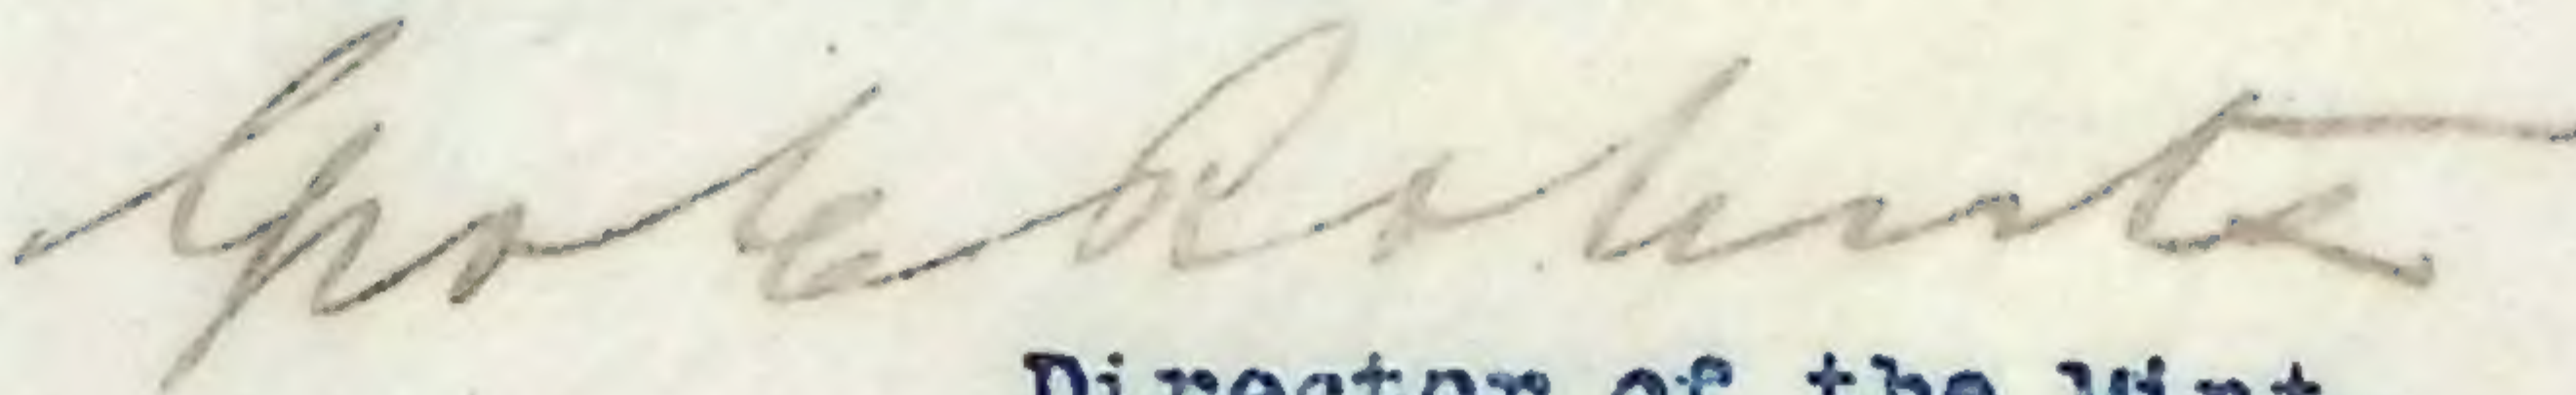

Philadelphia, Pa.

In reply to your letter of the 29th instant, you are respectfully informed that the parties in this city who were summoned by Mr. Eaxhart have been notified by him not to come to New Orleans until advised by wire.

I will endeavor to ascertain what action the Department of Justice will take as to your employment as an expert.

It is impossible for this office to pay more for your services than heretofore stated.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

S.